

CAMERA ANGLES GOOGLE SLIDE

Demonstrate your understanding of the 10 basic camera angles by creating a camera angle portfolio.

Use Google Slide to create this portfolio

When finished Email it to Melanie.day@besd.net with your name and period in the subject line.

Slide 1-

- Your full Name
- 5th or 6th period
- an awesome camera angle from one of your favorite movies

Slide 2

- This is a title slide Establishing shot
- A definition in your own words.

Slide 3

- 4 examples of Establishing shots
- Label each picture with it's movie

Slide 4

- This is a title slide of Full shot
- A definition in your own words.

Slide 5

- 4 examples of Full shots
- Label each picture with it's movie

Slide 6

- This is a title slide Medium shot
- A definition in your own words.

Slide 7

- 4 examples of Medium shots
- Label each picture with it's movie

Slide 8

- This is a title slide Head shot
- A definition in your own words.

Slide 9

- 4 examples of Head shots
- Label each picture with it's movie

Slide 10

- This is a title slide Close Up shot
- A definition in your own words.

Slide 11

- 4 examples of Close Up shots
- Label each picture with it's movie

Slide 12

- This is a title slide Extreme Close Up shot
- A definition in your own words.

Slide 13

- 4 examples of Extreme Close Up shots
- Label each picture with it's movie

Slide 14

- This is a title slide Bird's Eye shot
- A definition in your own words.

Slide 15

- 4 examples of Bird's Eye shots
- Label each picture with it's movie

Slide 16

- This is a title slide Worm's Eye shot
- A definition in your own words.

Slide 17

- 4 examples of Worm's Eye shots
- Label each picture with it's movie

Slide 18

- This is a title slide High Angle shot
- A definition in your own words.

Slide 19

- 4 examples of High Angle shots
- Label each picture with it's movie

Slide 20

- This is a title slide Low Angle shot
- A definition in your own words.

Slide 21

- 4 examples of Low Angle shots
- Label each picture with it's movie